

Soledad Brothers, Downtown Paranoia Blues

You're lookin' at a man been confused and misled
I swear she was here when I lay down my head
Now my brow is sweatin' lil more than before
I got that strange suspicion
I get my keys in the door

I'm afraid!
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown

Now my imagination is doin' me no good
What can I do to make her do what she should?
Got that paranoia and it's spinnin' in my head
I can see her layin' down in half a million beds

I'm afraid!
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown
Yeah!

I'm walkin' down the hill over 12th Street and Vine
There's a crowd-a-gatherin' to watch me lose my mind
Everybody's talkin' but they cannot hear a sound
Everybody's laughin' at the way it's goin' down

I'm afraid!
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid!
I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown
Well I'm afraid I'm gonna find her downtown
