

Solomon Childs, Which Way You Going

(Intro: Beretta 9) + (girl)

Yo, yo, yo, yo, yo, what up mira, what up mira?

(Get the fuck off my arm, man)

Check it, check it out, right

This Beretta 9 from the Killarmy crew

What's up ma? Two TNT and I'm ripped (Si, eat it)

Yo, I love pretty birds, what's up

You rollin' with me? (Who the fuck you callin' a bird?)

(All up in our chocha) Yo we don't eat dead birds, honey

(Beretta 9)

What up sweet thing? Lookin' like prom queen, e-bitch

Snake out our dough and do the same thing

But yo love, beat love to be loved, you got to make love

Slow jams, candles and shit, word up

While she work it, curved dick, between her pink lips

Your girlfriends buggin' and shit, check out her hips

Yo, the God must be slayin' it well, guaranteed

Broke it straight then, the virgin holograms, the misfits

Big ass, big tits, shorty was raised on grits

Tall glasses of milk, her grandson was biscuits

But mad shit she lack, like a girl, she react

Kings need queens, not no silly dingbats

Sugar and spice, but yo, you ain't that nice

Leave your ass fast, and won't think twice

(9th Prince)

Yo, live at the barbeque, two blocks down from Park Avenue

Sky was blue, shorty was dressed like a groom

Titties and ass round like balloons

Chinky eyes I analyzed, took my time like an old man that's wise

I pushed up, what up buttercup?

Proper ebonics, the slang had her stuck

My jewelry was truck, from the moment I spoke

Bitch almost choked on a note, she fell in love

Like Cinderella, I said my name was 9th Prince, boo

Yeah, but you can call Cinde-fella

(Chorus: Dom Pachino)

Which way you going? I think we goin' that way too

Girl, where your friends at? Introduce them to my crew

We be the livest M.C.'s in the game, you heard boo? You heard boo? Yo

(Dom Pachino)

Which way you going? I think we goin' that way too

Yo, where your friends at? Introduce them to my crew

Harmonize atheletic thighs had me hypnotized

To analyze and cease for a minute, before I advertised

A young ass, we used to cut class, smoke the greenest grass

Back to 49 junior high, I was a bad ass

Bringin' heat to school, pattin' me down was the principal

Nothin' he would do, gettin' suspended was the usual

In the boy's bathroom, they in the vacant classroom

Pokin' fast, got her tight womb, too many come to soon

But I was young, her little tongue'll get my dick hard

She feels, suckin' her tits up in the schoolyard

Took her virginity in Catholic School Trinity

Promised that she'd be my first love to infinity

(Chorus 2X)

(Solomon Childs)

Yo, what the deal Miss Chocolate?

Donna Summers French twist, Gucci boots, cover girl body

'88, Diadora hotty, Mary J. Blige body, mahogany queen
Body rollin' round at a slow pace
Can't make glamour girl, this the softest place
Playin' with the coochie at the fireplace
Catch I, flicks and hundred dollar kicks, lingerie, red cherry
Kitty kats stickin' out the popcorn, shrimp and strawberries
Bubble baths and chocolate milk, candle lights after dark
Back shots, late nights in the park
Solomon Childs, good girl, you heard?
B.B. Conduct, crushin', forever crushin'

(Chorus 2X)

(Outro: Dom Pachino)
Let me holla at you, yeah, quick conversation
Yeah, yo
