

Soluna, High School

ran Here tonight as i look upon the faces of my buddies i realize its almost over and its time to move on and leave behind the past so we say our goodbyes sign last words in the yearbook give hugs as tears stream down our faces its the last lunch for jesssay its the last time will not learn so say it with pride for all those who passed and the memories inside us thats the st joe in meee...

as much as we hate this place we will miss it whether it not be today but someday we'll look back remember the good times times we laughed so hard it hurt and times we cried but we will remember these days as the good ones

for all the who passed

At prom we danced for hours never wanting the night to end and as the last song played we danced together an unspoken goodbye was said all was forgiven in the moment as we laughed and smiled

at graduation we walked down the aisle huge smiles upon our faces speeches were given and we made a note of what was said as we were handed our diplomas we said goodbye to the life we once knew and headed out into the world to face each challenge it brought on

thats the st joe in meee...

No Regrets!
