

Soluna, I'll Be Waiting For You

Can't you see?
You mean everything to me
You're in my heart
You've touched my soul
You're all I'll ever need
And it hurts so bad
Not to have you by my side
Nothing's right, I cry all night
Just waiting for your call

Chorus:
I'll be waiting for you 'til the sun don't shine
I will wish on a star 'til I make you mine
I'll be dreaming all night that you're by my side
I'll be waiting for you
I'll be waiting for you 'til the end of time
Can't you see that I need you in my life?
You're all that I want I can't deny
I'll be waiting for you

Love is hard
When the distance seems so far
We were both inseparable
And now we're torn apart
I refuse to try
To love someone new
'Cause what we shared is heavenly
Like a rose that's in full bloom
You made me,
So happy
I never thought I'd lose you
Your love was,
And still is
The only thing I run to... every minute every hour i'll be waiting for you

Repeat Chorus

You make me so happy
I never thought I'd lose you
Your love was and still is the only thing I run to

Repeat Chorus

Every minute of every hour
I'll be waiting for you
