

Soluna, Nothing Looks Good On Me But You

I try to go on without you
That doesn't seem to work
I try to forget all about you
But that only hurts me worse
Well, I try on a smile
But it doesn't feel right
Everyone knows that I'm faking
My shades are just hiding
The tears in my eyes
'Cause baby, my poor
Heart is breaking, breaking

Can't help what I'm feeling
When I look in the mirror
It couldn't be any clearer 'cause
Nothing looks good on me but you
I just have to say that baby your the greatest and
I don't think that I could shake it cuz
Nothing looks good on me but you

And, you know it
Baby, why don't you turn back
I miss the way that you hold me
Like in that picture
Of you making me laugh
Well, I try to go out with some other guys
But that only puts me back
Where I started
'Cause deep down below
I'm just dying inside
knowing full well
Where my heart is, heart is

Can't help what I'm feeling
When I look in the mirror
It couldn't be any clearer 'cause
Nothing looks good on me but you
I just have to say that
baby you're the greatest and
I don't think that I could shake it cuz
nothing looks good on me but you

Nothing looks so good on my but you...Baby...

No, baby, nothing fits
I can't make any sense of it
Just thinking about your lips on mine
I need you to know
I made the biggest mistake of my life
I need your love so
Can we talk about it tonight
Baby, let's talk about it

I Can't help what I'm feeling
When I look in the mirror
It couldn't be any clearer 'cause
Nothing looks good on me but you
I just have to say that
Baby you're the greatest and
I don't think that I could shake it cuz
Nothing looks good on me but you

Can't help what I'm feeling

When I look in the mirror
It couldn't be any clearer 'cause
Nothing looks good on me but you
I just have to say that
baby you're the greatest and
I don't think i could shake it cuz
nothing looks good on me but you

Nothing looks so good on me but you...baby...
Your the best thing
Nothing looks so good...No...No
Nothing looks so good on me but you...
Nothing, Nothing looks so good on me but you...
