

Someday Never, Lost In A Dream

we're breathing so heavily so close to you - that's where i wanna be you drown me the way you look at me my heart connects to yours so suddenly so lift me up so this way i can see and get lost in your eyes - this comes so easily at times i try to remind myself i'm still here and not lost in a dream but how is this not a dream? somebody please pinch me if i wake up from this sleep promise me that you won't leave promise me you won't leave... the loneliness when you're not around - i pray for the moment to hold you again and your kiss, your lips - i miss the warmth of them strive for your smile again i can't get away

i'm light on my feet ignoring gravity but i must admit i love what you're doing to me so i fly away from this world 'till everything's out of site so let's fly away - you're my world so everything's alright it's alright...

i can't get away, i can't get away can't get away no i can't get away from tonight tonight - it's alright no i can't get away, can't get away from tonight, tonight - it's alright it's alright... it's alright... it's alright... it's alright
