Someone Still Loves You Boris Yeltsin, Oregon G

Oregon girl I've been around the world But I've never seen another Oregon girl. Oregon girl with your lips and curls; I want a taste of that Oregon girl.

There's a mountain. There's a time to. They were put up there to keep us apart. So I watch you making plans and I make plans. You could kick a drum but You just try to stop me now From movin' on with an Oregon girl. HEY!

Wait for me another year or two I will graduate and marry you. You roll the number and I'll buy the lumber To build a house up on an Oregon hill.

There's a mountain. There's a time to. They were put up there to keep us apart. So I watch you making plans and I make plans. You could grow a thumb But you just try to stop me now From movin' on with an Oregon girl
