

Somersault, Morning Glow

Wake up the sun
Out in the rain
Please tell the sky to smile again

I lost my name
On a busy day
Im sure it fell out of my head

What ever Ive done
I know - Im getting used - to be on my own
Where ever Ive been
Its time for me to pin my dream - on a silver screen

Refrain:
Come to see - youre leaving me
Now I know - Ive let you go
Into the morning glow
Into the morning glow

I always thought
Id seen you again
On an empty market square

They came to clear
Me from my fears
And drowned me with my memories
