

Something Corporate, Just Like A Woman

[Originally by Bob Dylan]

Nobody feels any pain
Tonight as I stand inside the rain
Everybody knows;
Babys got new clothes
But lately I see her ribbons and her bows
Have fallen from her curls

She takes just like a woman, yes, she does
She makes love just like a woman, yes, she does
And she aches just like a woman
But she breaks just like a little girl

Queen mary, shes my friend
Yes, I believe I will see her again
But everybody guess
That baby cant be blessed
Till she finally sees that shes like all the rest
With her fog, her amphetamine and her pearls

She takes just like a woman, yes, she does
She makes love just like a woman, yes, she does
And she aches just like a woman
But she breaks just like a little girl

It was raining from the first
I was dying there of thirst
So I came in here
So I came in here
And your long-time curse hurts
But whats worse
Is this pain in here
I cant stay in here
Aint it clear that?
I just dont fit
Yes, I believe its time for us to quit
And when we meet again
Introduced as friends
Please dont let on that you knew me when I was hungry and it was your world

Ah, you fake just like a woman, yes, you do
You make love just like a woman, yes, you do
Then you ache just like a woman
But you break just like a little girl
