

Something For Kate, Chapel St Etc.

All that's heard is every word is
just a little less than
etc. etc. etc. etc.
it travels like a wave
almost exact, same
just when it came all the wires and springs and machinery that held it in place had fallen out of the air and into the ocean all of the above
one after another, all after each other
locked into a line
people from above
folding into one piece, holding each other's leash
all's an exhibit
wheels set to roll
set to roll
just a little less than
special effects and camera tricks with mirrors and lights that make it so real, but yet a camera rolls on its tracks alongside the car
and here's the soundtrack
here it is
all of the above
one after another, all after each other
locked into a line
people from above
folding into one piece, holding each other's leash
