

Something With Numbers, What I Believe

Believe me when i say that he wept upon you
before he had told you that he had been lying all along You asked hat happened yesterday he looked guilty

He doesnt trust you
so what does he do
he cheats he lies he disappears all day close your eyes and fall into my embrace with me you'll be happy we will fight for you and me

its cold out
but i can see the sun
in your eyes

he will forget you
but that i wont do
this feeling cannot be normal i'm happy whenever you're around sitting here with me

we will fight
for you
and me
