

Son, Ambulance, Seven Days

All along (At that moment - connection ocean sand to beach)
What did you need?(Underneath the eyes of a person you meet)
Seven days(Hides a blink of influence - the time you share)
If you're with me(A soft subtle smile it's impact unaware)
If you get scared(Gone in a flash in a passerby fashion)
Need to lay low(Strangers understanding in brief interaction)
And put on your shades(Guards go down the feelings let flow)
I would understand(Dying while we grow is as far as it goes)

(Ohh...ohh...ohh...)
(Ohh...ohh...ohh.....)
(Ohh...ohh...ohh...)

If you can learn to trust me again our love can heal and live forever
