Son, Ambulance, Seven Days

All along (At that moment - connection ocean sand to beach) What did you need?(Underneath the eyes of a person you meet) Seven days(Hides a blink of influence - the time you share) If you're with me(A soft subtle smile it's impact unaware) If you get scared(Gone in a flash in a passerby fashion) Need to lay low(Strangers understanding in brief interaction) And put on your shades(Guards go down the feelings let flow) I would understand(Dying while we grow is as far as it goes)

(Ohh...ohh...ohh...) (Ohh...ohh...ohh....) (Ohh...ohh...ohh...)

If you can learn to trust me again our love can heal and live forever
