

Son By Four, Hard To Say

I find it so hard to say
All the things in my heart I've been hiding
I find it so hard to say
Oh that I'm ready to give myself forever

Wanna tell you that I'll be your baby
And I really wanna hold you tonight
All the loving anyone could need
And I know that we can make it all right
Let me give you what you want, what you desire
Waiting for the right place the right time
'cause I'm gonna be the one to take you higher
But all these things I find it hard to say

Ooh ooh find it hard to say

I find it so hard to say
Baby I wanna be there everyday with you always
I find it so hard to say, so hard to say
I wanna share my world with you

Wanna be your one and only honey
And together we can reach solid ground
Forever wanna be with you
'cause I'm happy whenever you're around
All I want is for you to be
Together with me always baby
So this is what I really need
But I find it so hard to say

You're always there my baby
And that means the world to me
The words don't come out maybe
'cause you take the air I breathe
I wanna tell you baby
And somehow I'll let you know
Your loving drives me crazy
And I'll never let you go

Wanna be your one and only honey
And together we can reach solid ground
Forever wanna be with you
'cause I'm happy whenever you're around
All I want is for you to be
Together with me always baby
So this is what I really need
But I find it so hard to say

So hard to say....
