

Son Of A Plumber, Drowning In Wonderful Thought

Hurry yea! Got somethin to do that must get done
Hurry yea! Im about to move into the sun
Ive been standin in the shade of a shadow
I feel like drownin in wonderful thoughts about her
And its alright

Hurry yea! Call the papers, spread the word today
Hurry yea! Left for good, Im finally on my way
To kick the cryin has taken forever
But now Im drownin in wonderful thoughts about her
And its alright
I think about her
And Im doin fine

Hurry yea! Got somethin to do that must get done
Hurry yea! Im about to move and sit in the sun
To kick my cryin has taken forever
But now Im drownin in wonderful thoughts about her
And its alright
I think about her
And Im doin fine
