

Sonia Stein, Do You Love Me

don't know why I'm feeling so unsure how much I wanna hold you makes me insecure I'm finding myself wide while you're sleeping I don't recognize myself, over analyzing

do you love me baby
cause I think I see it in your eyes
when you kiss me baby /2x
do you love me baby
cause I think I feel in your hands when you touch me baby /2x afraid that I'll wake up and you'll gone I feel like I've been waiting for something to go wrong have you everybody and you're still getting sweeter but I'm still fighting with myself, analyzing

cause I think I see it in your eyes
when you kiss me baby /2x
do you love me baby
cause I think I feel in your hands

morning comes, realise that I was crazy but you're too good to be true I've come undone, pinching myself lately losing sleep, asking myself

cause I think I see it in your eyes
when you kiss me baby /2x
do you love me baby
cause I think I feel in your hands
when you touch me baby /2x
