

Sonic Youth, Unmade Bed

Look who's come back home again
Loser lookin' for his lucky break
This time he says he just needs a friend
Ain't on the run, he ain't on the take

Can you unlock this door babe
Will you just undo the chain
Will you take the time before you nix-out love (?)
Ease low pain (?)

Loneliness lays down his head
Wants to get you high
Better take it now
A man like that is like an unmade bed

Stayed there searching for another way out
Do you really even want this
Maybe you just don't care
All I know it takes just one kiss baby for you
He's never there

Hey I know it's kinda hard
And maybe this time it will never end
Hit-and-run lover back in yr heart
All those answered prayers
You should never have sinned
Cuz now that you're in his arms babe
Know that you're just in his way
Suckered by his fatal charm oh girl
It's time
We get away
