

Sonido Lasser Drakar, Kiss Me Again

Every time I go out and you aren't there your face comes and goes, you're not anywhere I look around the party drinking a beer or two Then you arrive and happiness becomes true...
I don't think I love you I never felt pain feeling like I'm drunk all the time with your smiling face.

Kiss me again shove me into the bushes, kiss me again crush me against the wall kiss me again drown me with your kisses kiss me again, kiss me till the end.

It wasn't too long ago, when we had that nigh the nigh was cold and you were feeling allrighth (allrighth) it only happened once and it seems like the only time.

I don't think I love you I never felt pain
feeling like I'm drunk all the time
with your smiling face.

Kiss me again shove me into the bushes,
kiss me again crush me against the wall
kiss me again drown me with your kisses
kiss me again, kiss me till the end.

Maybe it's better if it stays this way you having fun dancing around the place another man like you and I wouldn't be the same.

Kiss me again shove me into the bushes,
kiss me again crush me against the wall
kiss me again drown me with your kisses
kiss me again, kiss me till the end.
