

Sonido Lasser Drakar, Visions

If we are talking about the motion
Now you must drink the poison
Yes we are so superstitious
And we feel like we have visions of tomorrow.

See the stars and see the mirror
You'll find an empty kingdom of the Future.

Let's begin with something simple
Like when you are looking for a symbol
You are running to a temple
Through the spectrums of the past
The main gate is wide open
Walk on pieces of an idol broken
Darkness fills the space now
The electric mass begins
But remember you are nothing
You are nothing of those visions of the Future.

And loneliness is a state of mind of Those years.
When people fight always for a stupid
Reason.

You are now a robotic new being
Happiness is the kingdom of tomorrow
Yeah!
