

Sonique, Empty (Hideaway)

The shallow need to feel wanted
Worshiped and adored and never be ignored
I give you love but you don't see it
You never understand
My world is in your hand, and
I have this thought in my head
And it's about being noticed
I have this thought in my head
And it's about being noticed
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
You start this dance but I'm leading
I act out the abuse
Bewildered and confused, oh
Tonight I'm yours, but I don't feel it
You say it's all a game, but one can only play it
I have this thought in my head
And it's about being noticed
We hide away, somebody
We hide away, somebody stop me
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
We hide away
I have this thought in my head
And it's about being noticed
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
We hide away
Somebody stop me feeling empty
