

Sonny Burgess, Sadie's Back In Town

Oh-oh, Sadies' back in town again...

Well, I had a gal, oh what a gal
And her name, her name was Sadie Brown
Well, I took her out to a ride uptown
While that moon, that moon kept shining down
Well, I told her that I loved her so
And I'd never, I'd never let her go

Well, I rode around, all around that town
And I told my gal she was the one
Well, we went home and we sat alone
Out on that old porch swing
Well, I told her that I loved her so
And I'd never, I'd never let her go

Well, the light went on and I knew it was time
For me, for me to head for home
So I grabbed my hat and I hit that gate
And I said, I said I see you cat
Well, I got a gal, oh what a gal
And her name, her name was Sadie Brown
(Hello Sadie...)
