

Sonny & Cher, Here Comes That Rainy Day Feeling

Here comes that rainyday feeling again
And soon my tears they will be falling like rain

It always seems to be a Monday
Left all the memories of Sunday
Always standin' here before the clouds appear
And took away my sunshine

Here comes that rainyday feeling again
And I'll be dreaming of your baby in vain

Your face is always on my mind girl
I hope that soon you're gonna find girl
No way back to me
Cause if you say you stay the rainydays would go away

Misty morning eyes
I'm trying to describe
The way I feel
But I just can't hide it
People seem to know
This loneliness I show
Loneliness inside
But eat it up inside girl

Here comes that rainyday feeling again
And soon my tears they will be falling like rain
It always seems to be a Monday
Always standin' here before the clouds appear
And took away my sunshine

Here comes that rainyday feeling again
Here comes that rainyday feeling again
Here comes that rainyday feeling again
