

Sonny & Cher, I Believe In You

Today begins a brand new day
And I know that doesn't sound like much
But when you're takin' each day as it comes
It's more than enough

[Chorus:]
'Cos I believe in you and it carries me through Tomorrow is okay 'cos I got love today
And you're love means more and more
When you believe the way I do
And darling I believe, I believe in you

Each day seems like minutes
And they shine just like your eyes
When you're wearin' love the way we do
There's no need for disguise

[Chorus]

Well I never want this train to stop
And I know just what to do
I gotta take the love you give to me
And send it back to you

[Chorus x3]
