Sonny & Cher, Just You

With his big brown eyes he came my way
I didn't know then what he had to say
I could tell that he felt bad
By the way he looked
That he was sad, oh yeah

Sometimes you hurt me baby
I don't know why
I'll always love you baby
Till the day I die
But when you look at fellas
Baby I get jealous

I only live my life for you
Anything you say I'll do
I'll live for you I'll die for you
I'll even climb the mountains high for you
Just you

Thought right then he'd break my heart
I could feel the teardrops start
Why didn't he know I love him so
I could never let him go oh no

I'd never hurt you baby - tell me
I'm gonna love you till the day I die
When I look at fellas
Baby don't get jealous

I love you, just you
Nobody else but you
Just You
I love you, only you,
Every day, every day just you

I'll die for you
I'll even climb the mountains high for you
Just you
