

Sonny Fodera, Asking (feat. MK, Clementine Dou

I want this to last forever
Let's live in the moment
Oh-oh, my baby
Where you at?
You know I need you now
Ooh, you been acting so shady
You used to make me feel
Unbelievable
You swore that only you could love me deeper
But it seems you got a bad case of amnesia
I even gave you my keys to the Bimmer
Anytime that you wanted to ride
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you, you, you)
And some tenderness
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was, oh
Oh
And you know
Giving my heart ain't usual for me
I try to hide my vulnerability
And I know, I know I don't need ya
'Cause you lie, lie, lie
Every single time
You swore that only you could love me deeper
But it seems you got a bad case of amnesia
I even gave you my keys to the Bimmer
Anytime that you wanted to ride
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was you (you, you, you)
All I was asking for was, oh
Oh
All I was asking for was
Where you at?
Oh
All I was asking for was you
You, you, you, you, you
