

Sons And Daughters, The Bell

We swing together like the bell
With a similar story to tell
Both holding on until the end
At least we're not alone
Swinging together like the bell
Together we fell
Holding over water and the well
Again again again

Hang on
You've got to hang on to yourself
Hang on
You've got to hang on to yourself

Swinging forever like the bell
With a similar story to tell
Both holding on until the end
At least we're not alone
We swing forever like the bell
Together we fell
Holding over water and the well
