

Sons Of Thunder, Lord Take Control

My world's crumblin' the future's so dole
But I'm trying to save my shattered soul
On my own
On my own

The enemy's trying to wreck my whole life
But I'm trying to stand up and fight
On my own
On my own

The more I strive the less I gain
The vows I made were all in vain

I submit to you oh Lord take control Deliever me from pain
and save my soul
I submit to Jesus
Who can keep me standin'
When the tempter's trying to drag me down
I still stand
On the face of the devil

When I'm weak through Christ
I will be strong Through His wisdom
I can separate right from wrong
Not on my own
Not on my own

While death seems near I start to pray I'm filled with life day by day

I submit to you oh Lord take control
and save my soul
I submit to Jesus
drag me down

"Submission is the key to finding life itself.
Submit to Him, it's the only way for you to face the sorrows and pains in everyday and walk tall through the valleys of death with a faith growing stronger and a soul that is filled with everlasting peace, yet remeber this is only possible through the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, whose superiority stings like a needle in the eye of the devil.

I submit to you oh Lord take control
drag me down
