

Sonya Kitchell, Let Me Go

You hold me down
please
you let me go
I'm dying to be out
on my own
and I think I might go crazy
if this lasts any longer

you tell me this
and you tell me that I'm trying to tell you
where I'm at
and I think I might go crazy

oh yeah

(chorus)
I want to
let you know you got to
let me
go
you got to let me go
yeah you got to
let me
you gotta let me go
oh you gotta let me go
and I'm just tryin' to let you know
so please
let me go

(doo-doo's)

I've been on my best behavior
well more than you need I'm not a savior
and I think I might go crazy

you may think
you're misunderstood
but I'm tired of acting like I should

oh yeah

(chorus)
I want to
let me
you gotta let me go
oh you got to
let me
you gotta let me go
you know I'm tryin' to

let me go

(Bridge)
Well I love you
and I need you
but I've got to get away
give me space
and I won't mind
when you want me to stay and I resent the fact that I need you
you gotta let me make mistakes
give me time
out on my own
we won't have too much heartache
and I say oh

(chorus)
I wanna
let me
you gotta let me go
oh you gotta
let me
you gotta let me go
oh you gotta
let me
you gotta let me go
oh you gotta
let me
oh you gotta let me go
I'm just trying to

(doo-doo's)
(mmm's)
