

Sophie Ellis-Bextor, Freedom Of The Night

Wake up
put on your confidence like make up
Step through the mirror as the sun drops
Kiss the lights goodbye
I've heard dreams come true
Come To the other side
I can feel
Energy
I believe
It's Healing me
All I need is
Sweet release
In The freedom of the night
Give in to what to do want
Don't check the clock
There's no time here we're Just spun
in a web made of moonlight
Give me enough that my heart stop
Starts beats fast
I'm scared but it feels right
I've heard dreams come true
Come To the other side
I can feel
Energy
I believe
It's Healing me
All I need is
Sweet release
In The freedom of the night
Give in to what you want
When the moon is high I feel this way
Getting what I need to rise again
When the moon is high I rise again
