Sophie Ellis-Bextor, Move To The Music

The summer's I dance till morning The heartache and sleepless nights The party's and lover's calling Days when nothing went right

These moments have made me Though I am today...

Chorus:

All of my yesterdays
The highs and lows of but I can still Move to the Music the journey that I've made, all those emotions but I can still move while the music plays within a new today now that Ive grown up to oh I can still move to the music I won't be one to say that I regret a moment

'cos I can still move while the music plays

A cross word, a bruise, a memory Some presence and too much wine The days when it rained and thundered When your heart found mine

Chorus

Move to the music (x 6)
