

Sophie Ellis-Bextor, Never Let Me Down

Gone are the days when I sold myself to the river
Gone are the days when I forced myself to be true
Now is the time to be proud of what you were given
Now is the time to believe in somebody new

There was only one thing on my mind
When I felt my heart just floating away and away

Your love will never let me down
Your love will never let me down

Never before have I felt this much for another
Never before have I said that this is the one
I didn't want to pretend that this didn't matter
I can't wait to be carried into the sun

There was only thing on my mind
When I felt my heart just floating away and away

Your love will never let me down
Your love will never let me down

There was only one thing on my mind
When I felt my heart just floating away and away

Your love will never let me down
Your love will never let me down
Your love will never let me down
Your love will never let me down
