

Sophie Zelmani, Gone With The Madness

I'm gonna bring a bottle of wine Won't change the truth,
just to fit our time Disappointed, it was a man hidden in the woods
of my dreamland
I wanted you to desire me
I could have
gone with the madness
Gone with the madness
I don't regret you or that I met you But I was too honest where games must take their place It's such a crime but I was swept off my feet for the first time
For the first time
I don't need my pride
To you it was crazy
But I'm still excited inside
But I wanted you to desire me
I could have
gone with the madness
Gone with the madness
Everything's
gone with the madness
Gone with the madness
