Sophie Zelmani, I will be there

Is there a land Maybe close to you Where I can stay And maybe wait for you A stony shore Is what I have in mind With a path Leading to a home close behind I know I will be there What about you? When youve caught a dream All you wanna say And make an easy promise It will always be this way But if you come Maybe I wont show how glad I am But I would feel that promise You shouldnt give any man I know I will be there What about you? I know I will be there I dont know about you Is there a land I wont have to leave so fast Is there a shore That could catch me at last I know I will be there Probably you wont no I know I will be there But you, no you wont I know I will be there I dont know about you I know I will be there What about you? What about you? What about you? What about you?
