

Sophie Zelmani, Love On My Mind

Oh, my lord
Why have you done my kisses blind

Why do you end what has just begun
Why don't you give me time
When you know I've got love on my mind

And why have you
Made me chary for all
That used to make me fall

Why do I feel so terrified
And mostly like a blight
Like I ask for tons of love

Oh, my trust
Why don't you help no more
I used to be so sure

That if the right one
Would meet my eyes
He would be hypnotized
And love me all along
Through this life

Oh, my lord
Let's say no more
I just can't endure

So many years has just become
A long long time
When you knew I had love on my mind
