

Sophie Zelmani, Oh Dear

Don't you ever go out
When was the last time you were out
Have you ever been out
Oh dear
Is something wrong with the air
Since you can't breathe in here
How long have you held breath
Oh dear
What is closing you in
Must be a giant dream
It's not your life we have seen
Oh dear
Don't let your choices be hopes you still can't feel
All was giving for free
My dear
