Sophie Zelmani, So Long

I've had my eyes
I've had my ears
To steal from you
For so long
For a sake to fill
A hole that kills
You've made me thrill

I've been wandering So long So long, so long

Now I burn And when i yearn Everywhile without you Is too long Now i'm free You made me see It had to be so long

Because I'm gonna love you So long So long, so long
