

Sophie Zelmani, Until Dawn

I wonder, I wonder about the fire One fire I seen to be stuck with It's glowing, and burning, and sparkling of flames
I wonder who set it free
And I don't know just what to do It's like I could, get crazy
about you
My fire burns until dawn
My fire burns until dawn
I wonder about the sun over the brook
I wonder about the genius and the fool
I wonder about reasons and what it would take to use their power for their own sake
And I don't know just what to do
about you
My fire burns until dawn
My fire burns until dawn
