

Sophie Zelmani, Wind took my sail

I dont understand why Im leaving you
I dont understand what Im doing
Must follow what has gone from you
Over sea it is moving
I dont know whats gonna meet me there
I dont know where Im going
All I find is that my hearts not here
If I stay, youll be lonely
The sail got wind in it and
I need to see where it goes
Yes the wind took my sail, and I
Need to go where it blows
I dont understand how I can be leaving you
I could not see that happen
Yesterday my world was to love you
But now something
Took my heart on the shipping
The sail got wind in it and
I need to see where it goes
Yes the wind took my sail, and I
Need to go where it blows
The sail got wind in it and
I need to see where it goes
Yes the wind took my sail, and I
Need to go where it blows
