

Sophie Zelmani, Yes I Am

I am tired, yes I am
I'm a coward, yes I am Now I understand how long I've been a canting woman
You say, that something's wrong
Today, and many more will come
Though I really longed
I want you to leave me alone
I had to ask my friends
our excuses never ends
I'm just a lazy, bored adult to seldom there are good results
I think about this all the time
I can admit how bad it rimes
I want you, yes I do
