Soraya, Calm Before The Storm

when i am with you don't want the world to move want to freeze it maybe wrap it up and keep it steady now, so i won't lose you

When I am with you it's like colors keep shining through from lighter to darker then richer to weaker they're blended till I'm all lost in you

With a sudden turn my insecurity burns
I 'm thrown into the whirlwind of doubt all the love that i now feel slips away from me until I am isolated without you

If this is the calm before the storm I fear the end is near so I look behind the words you say and try to find your way out of here what will be your way out of here what will be your way out of here your way out of here

When I am with you sometimes i don't know what to do would you believe me if i were to tell you that this craziness is all over you

With a sudden turn my insecurity burns I 'm thrown into the whirlwind of doubt all the love that i now feel slips away from me until I am isolated without you

If this is the calm before the storm I fear the end is near so I look behind the words you say and try to find your way out of here if this is the calm before the storm I fear the end is near so
