

Soraya, Until I'm loving you

Tell me how I should let you know cause I can't hold this true inside
Scared to try and just let go
Of the ghost in my past
Of the tears that I've cry
I will not love
I will not fall
I will not give away this fragile soul
I will not trust, I swear that's true
I will not love until I'm loving you
Walked on faith too many miles
Dropped some dreams along the way
Won't you look me in the eyes
Tell me to stay, baby not look away
I will not love,
I will not fall,
I will not give away this fragile soul
I will not trust, I swear that's true
I will not love until I'm loving you
Kill me or save me, it's all in your hands
I'll be loving blind, baby not this time
I will not fall,
I will not give away this fragile soul
I will not trust, I swear that's true
I will not love until I'm loving you
I will not love,
I will not fall,
I will not give away this fragile soul
I will not trust, I swear that's true
I will not love until I'm loving you
I will not love,
I will not fall,
I will not give away this fragile soul
I will not trust, I swear that's true
I will not love until I'm loving you
