

Sordid Humor, Doris Day

There are jaguars in Mexico farther south than I'll ever go my life is filled with squirrels and ten million beautiful girls

hello my sweet orangutan
Doris Day is on TV again
I apologize for everything

my eyes are filled with snow
I think my hands are broken I could drive her like a mustang if I could keep my eyes open

hello my sweet orangutan
Doris Day is on TV again
hello my sweet orangutan
