

Soul Asylum, I Should Have Stayed In Bed

Im gonna stay in bed all day
Im gonna stay in bed all day
And this could be my lucky day
Or it could turn to black
I might lucky anyway
I might never come back
And its to late for a wake up call
To late for a wake up call
Im gonna put it off today
Im gonna put you off
Nothing I gotta do today
Except to blow you off
My dreams are all just throw aways
My superstitions lack Im just unlucky anyway
all of my cats are black
Dont let the sun pass you by
Dont let it fall from the sky
Dont let the the sunshine pass you by Dont let the tear fall from your eye
I couldve stayed in bed all day
I couldve stayed in bed all day
Nothing I gotta do todayt
I might just rise and shine
Dont let the sun pass you by
Dont let it fall from the sky
Dont let the sunshine pass you by Dont let the tear fdall from your eye
Its there each time I turn around
I look and youll be gone
I couldve thought so many things
I couldve stayed(x2)
I shouldve stayted in bed all day(x2)
