

Soul Asylum, Long Way Home

You've got eyes but they can't see
What's inside a tv and they never look at me
You won't know and you're never claim to show
That special feeling inside
Oh how time flies when its got nowhere to go
Up to the skies and it only goes to show
I've waited here for you a long, long time
I think i'd better go
Long way home (x4)
So now you studied the changes
Have you lost your way
Through all the strangeness
And you got no more to say
Long way home (x8)
