Soul Demise, Trapped In A Body

All over sudden something was extremely wrong The "system" went down with a supersonic bang Due to unknown reasons far beyond control A reliable mechanism refused to work Much to soon it turned out as a fatal mistake To believe in human technology nonetheless a fake No dignity at all - regarded by physicians like a thing No dignity at all - nothing to loose yet enough to win Trapped in a body - when mind and flesh divide Trapped in a body - imprisoned soul inside The mortal shell rejected working and isolated your mind Meant no further communication - a unreal form of life Yet you could still feel the presence of the ones you love Accompanying you during the time And then you were certain that it's half as difficult to go For feeling deep emotions streaming between your souls Since your family was near, close to you, right by your side They filled your heart with power and calmed your mind Memories keep you alive preserved in the hearts of your beloved Finally you found salvation in your paradise above
