

Soul II Soul, Free Again

spoken:

It's time to get our groove back; back to life; back to reality

Feeling free; releasing our inhibitions.

Time to get our groove back.

Well, memories, they flood the mind;

as the sun, it begins to shine.

Reminiscing on the days gone by;

do you remember those happy times?

Well, I'll give anything to be back there.

We'll just celebrate those happy years, taking time to unwind;

just following your mind and leave your troubles behind.

Go in the pow'r of the positive and higher thing

Feeling a desire to go drifting on a memory

Oh, anytime we can go there

let our heart and soul be clear.

And if you follow your mind,

your troubles disappear.

So good to be free again, to have a good time.

And I pray this feeling never ends, 'cause I feel alive.

So good to be free again.

Gotta go inside and release the other part of me.

Nowhere else for me to hide. Revelation of a mystery.

Oh, anytime we can go there

let our heart and soul be clear.

And if you follow your mind,

your troubles disappear.

So good to be free again, to have a good time.

And I pray this feeling never ends, 'cause I feel alive.

So good to be free again.

So good to be, so good to be free

Tomorrow will pass; that we all know.

And as each day comes, there's another one that goes, you know.

But ignorance is no shame; it's just blindness to the facts.

But believe, for ignoring it, you're to blame for turning your back.

So, make the right decision from, mm, a thousand voices;

Many that there are, but believe all the choices are few.

So what'cha gonna do? Feel free or be free?

Now that's the question; that the real focus of reality.
