

Soulrelic, It's All So Easy

I died in hunger and your name was written on this empty plate of our love
The more I crave for you the more I bleed and hurt
Yet the plate wont refill
We are chased by shadows of our yesterday
We crawl for more
Its all so easy
Breathing eachother til we die
And getting high of you
Its all so easy
Beating together til we pry eyes open one more time
Oh, how the dawn seems like a shroud upon our dream
Yet its true what we see
We are chased by shadows of our yesterday
We crawl for more
Its all so easy
Breathing eachother til we die
And getting high of you
Its all so easy
Beating together til we pry eyes open one more time
So murdering hights we slowly flow to hide ourselves from what we knew
Its all so easy
Breathing eachother til we die
And getting high of you
Its all so easy
Beating together til we pry eyes open one more time
