

Soulwax, Accidents And Compliments

You need truth and aspirine
I need violence
No one, no one has good taste
It's all just coincidence

Cause you don't seem to bother
You don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
Cause you don't seem to understand
This is all you wanted
You don't seem to comprehend

I need pills and memories
You need an audience
No one, no one gets nothing
I call you an ...??

Cause you don't seem to bother
You don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
Cause you don't seem to comprehend
We do not accept this
You don't seem to understand

Cause you don't seem to understand
Accidents and compliments
You don't seem to comprehend
We do not accept this
You don't seem so innocent
This is all you wanted
You don't seem to understand
Cause every time we try to end...
