

Soulwax, The Prizefighter (Slo-Burn)

Realise, iron horse will take you there,
Realise, every wall and in your head.
Take your time to look in eyes and look at yourself,
Realise to take the ball and in your land.

God damn wont you spill yourself babe, the land, all in your hand.
All right, see yourself babe, the light, the balls on your line.
God damn wont you jump yourself, the light is riding the fine wine.
Shit yeah, shoot yourself babe, the fight is all your prize.

See yourself dont you wanna see a, someone else?
Someone else dont you wanna see a, well go fk yourself!
Realise iron horse will take you there.
Realise every wall and in your eyes.

God damn wont you spill yourself babe, the land, all in your hand.
All right, see yourself babe, the light, the balls on your line.
God damn wont you jump yourself, the light is riding the fine wine.
Shit yeah, shoot yourself babe, the fight is all your prize.
