

Sound of a revolution, Words Untold

Take my hand and lead me down
I don't wanna stay cold
I cut myself I'm shivering
If you don't mind I wanna leave it all untold
I don't wanna tell you anything
I don't wanna hear another word from you
Can't talk about anything
Tell me something I haven't heard before
I don't wanna tell you anything at all
You wake me up when I sleep
I know you wanna tell me everything
I shut down I step aside
Until you're gone or maybe until you fall asleep
I don't wanna tell you anything
I don't wanna hear another word from you
Can't talk about anything
Tell me something I haven't heard before
I don't wanna tell you anything at all
